

CAREER HUNT

Why not India?

Why not India?

Ancient Education

- We have a 5,000-year-old ancient education, from Gurukul to today's school education

Divinity

- India is rich in moral values, religion, and culture.
- We have divinity represented by symbolic gods and goddesses.

Strategic Management

- We have the first management system, which is the joint family.
- We learn strategic management from this.

Why not India?

Agriculture

- Currently, India has 60% of its population engaged in farming.
- We possess a vast agricultural resource, and even at present, the agricultural industries are developing.

Literacy

- India is rich in literacy from ancient time.
- We have many ancient scripts on which research work is going on.

Ayurveda

- Ayurveda, an ancient holistic system of medicine originating from India, emphasizes the balance of mind, body, and spirit to promote overall well-being.

Why not India?

Universal synthesis

- Studying science through slokas allows us to explore a beautiful fusion of scientific knowledge and poetic expressions.

Craving craft

- Indians are rich in handicrafts.
- They have provided employment opportunities for the people of India.

Tourism

- Tourism plays a vital role in Indian economy.
- India is the first country for yatradham.

Why not India?

Different clothing

- Reflecting the diversity of cultures, different clothes serve as a means of self-expression.

Performing Arts

- Provide a platform for storytelling and emotional expression, encompassing a wide range of creative disciplines.

Multiple languages

- India is a multilingual country.
- It gives a glimpse of unity in diversity.

Why not India?

Spiritual science

- Spiritual science combines elements of science and spirituality.
- It is a combination of physics and metaphysical realms.

Abundance

- It encompasses a mind-set of gratitude.
- We have a wide range of natural resources that provide different plants and their products, which help in maintaining good health.

Artisan

- The practice of creating handcrafted goods with skill is a celebration of craftsmanship and the uniqueness of each place.

Why not India?

Self employed

- Self-employment means taking on the responsibility of running one's own business.
- In India, there are many small businesses, which is why 76.01% of people are self-employed.

Financial management

- India has achieved the best possible outcomes in financial management.
- India is one of few country which is unaffected by Global recession in 2023

Youth power

- India, the youngest country, has an average age equivalent to the working-age population.
- It embodies the passion creatives.

Why not India?

Investment destination

- India is a favourite destination for investment by other countries.
- India has the highest youth power, which is an attractive feature of the country.

Natural resources

- India has the highest natural resources.
- Due to these natural resources, India has the best and unique power source, which is solar power.

Railway network

- India has the longest railway network.
- Indian railways play a crucial role in transportation.

Why not India?

Iconic

- India has the quality of global leaders who have done great work in every field.

Humanity

- India is the one of the country where humanity exist.
- Humanity reflects the cultural and moral behaviour of our country.

Global leaders

- India has global leaders who are working outside of India, which is leading to India's renewed recognition in the world.

Why not India?

Gita

- The first psychological book is from India.
- The Gita gives lessons for life.

Freedom

- India had the longest freedom fight, which lasted for about 347 years.
- After that, India has had one of the highest growth rates in the world.

Multitasking

- All Indian mothers are caretakers, teacher and many more for the family.
- Indian women have ability to manage multiple responsibility at workplace and home.